Saturday, April 1 1704

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated March 27.

Naples, February 26.

OUR Viceroy has caus'd 5 Gallies to be fitted out to go in quest of some Zealand Privateers that have been seen off Passaro. The Troops that are to be sent from this Kingdom and from Sicily to Spain and the Milaneze, are expected to come to the Rendezvous appointed them in the Neighbourhood of this City the beginning of next Month: They consist of six Regiments of Foot and two of Horse. The Council Royal being oblig'd to remit great Sums from hence to Madrid to supply the King's Occasions which the Preparations of War he has been oblig'd to make have rendred very great, have pass'd a Resolution to sell all the confiscated Estates 40 per Cent. under their computed Value.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated March 26.

Venice, March 17. A certain Number of Recruits for the Imperial Army on the Secchia is arriv'd near Verona from Tyrol. General Trautmansdorf has made due Preparation to frustrate the Attempts which the Grand Prior of France threatens to make upon Revere, and other Places that are in the Hands of the Imperialists. 'Tis talk'd here that the King of France has sent Orders for an English Vessel bound to this City that was taken by a French Frigate in one of the Ports in the Adriatick Gulph belonging to the Republick, to be set at Liberty. The last Advices from Constantinople tell us, that the Grand Signior has restor'd Mauro Cordato to the Places he held under the last Sultan, and had given Audience to all the Ambassadors from the European Potentates that are at the Porte, the Ambassador of Muscovy excepted, who claiming Precedency of the Ambassador of France, and the Divan thinking fit to set aside that Claim, the Muscovite has forborn to demand Audience; and has refus'd to receive any Honours from the Court. Which Conduct has given Rise to a Discourse, that there will quickly be a Rupture between the Grand Signior and the Czar of Muscovy.

From the Rotterdam Gazette, dated March 24.

Triers, March 16. The French are making great Preparations on the Moselle and the Saar, but with what Design we are yet to learn; but by the frequent Expresses that have pass'd every day this Week through our Neighbourhood from the Court of France to the Count de Coignis, 'tis conjectur'd it cannot be long before the Troops put themselves in Motion. The Jews that live in the Hondsrug convey hither and to Metz a great Number of Horses by the way of Simmeren and Kirckberg, which they could not possibly do, if those whose Business it is to be watchful to hinder it, did their Duty. The French themselves are surpriz'd to see Horses brought to them with so much ease; insomuch that a certain Officer of Traerbach ask'd tother day in a joking manner, whether the Garrison of Kirn were lock'd up in their Castle, seeing they suffer'd the Jews to carry on this Trade in Horses in the Neighbourhood of that Place.

Falmouth, March 27. Yesterday arriv'd the King William Pacquet-Boat with three Mails from Jamaica, &c. she was chased the day before off Scilly by a French Privateer of 30 Guns, and was forc'd to cast two Guns overboard and narrowly escap'd.

Plymouth, March 28. On the 26th instant at Night came in from the Westward Her Majesty's Ship the Medway, who on the 25th came up with a French Frigate of 50 Guns about 15 Leagues S. W. from Scilly, and engag'd her four hours though with much difficulty, the Weather being very Stormy, the great Swell of the Sea and Night coming on, could not possibly board her, so she got off to the French Shore; in which Dispute the Medway had only one Man kill'd and one wounded.

Dartmouth, March 28. This Morning sail'd from hence the Dolphin Man of War with several other Ships which are under her Convoy bound for Holland and London, together with a Dutch Privateer and her Prize bound to the same Place, who have lain here some time for a fair Wind.

Yarmouth, March 29. Here continues in these Roads a Fleet of about 300 Sail of light Colliers under Convoy of Her Majesty's Ships the Chester and Nightingal, they wait an Opportunity of a Wind to Sail, it being at present N. W. but very little Wind.
